

Qzaki

2007 Qzaki Prize Winner Announced; Guidelines for 2008 Prize

Pasadena, CA – May 7, 2008 – Catherine Raine has received the 2007 Qzaki Prize for her original novel Finding Asylum. Dr. Raine received a $1000 cash award via Paypal. Her winning contribution received the prize in recognition of the quality and consistent popularity (as measured by downloads) of the work. The novel was in the Qzaki Top Content feed for more than 40 weeks during 2007, far ahead of any other single contribution.

For 2008, the Qzaki Prize will be expanded to include multiple submissions by any single contributor. The 2008 Qzaki Prize will recognize the most excellent contributor during calendar year 2008. In addition to recognition, the winner will receive a $1000 cash award by Paypal. As always the award will be influenced by the number of downloads. However, the final winner will be determined by the Qzaki Webmaster.

###